YOUR PLANNER

Makensie Banda

Hey love! Thank you thank you for this opportunity. Seriously! Planning weddings is my dream and getting to be a small part in your special day means the world to me!

Planner, designer, wifey, mamma. When I'm not planning weddings I'm usually water side/ beach or lake relaxing. I love decorating, organizing, and vintage shopping or of course shopping of any kind! Quick getaways are my jam. Trips to Dallas for some fine dining or mimosas + brunch is essential to my happiness!

I found the wedding industry over 7 years ago - my very first real job was night shift at a wedding venue making sure everything ran smoothly + I quickly fell in love. I soon after became the manager and loved working with couples on the venue side of things but learned fast that I wanted to be even more involved in the planning process for the couples that needed the extra help. Poof! Heavenly Weddings was born.

I can't wait to chat details with you! If you like mimosas or coffee let's grab some and chat all things wedding!

XOXO - Makensie
